

360 Degrees Consultancy Ltd – Case Study

360 Degrees Consultancy Ltd's Managing Director Karl has been involved in The concept, planning and construction of some of the most complex temporary roofing projects in the UK

Spanning from the Manchester Bombing of 1996 through to present day.

In 2014 Karl was directly responsible for the concept and delivery of the largest temporary roof in Europe at the time on the Arup Building in Cambridge.

Neil Harrison of ScafDac Ltd said “ Karl has a wealth of valuable knowledge that would benefit any client with a technically challenging project. He also has a wealth of experience working around listed building projects all over England.

